

Hawaii Agency Owners,

The insurance landscape is constantly adapting to ensure premiums reflect current risk profiles and maintain coverage adequacy. As a result, we're implementing adjustments to Hawaii Allstate homeowners policies.

As of February 24, 2025, for new business, and April 10, 2025, for renewals, Hawaii Allstate homeowners policies, underwritten by Allstate Insurance Company, will see an average rate increase of 10.1%.

We realize the impact these actions have and appreciate the extra time it takes to manage the customer experience in these situations. Our sales and underwriting teams are available to help answer any questions you may have.

We know you have options when selecting carriers to protect customers and rate adjustments like these can make managing the customer experience a challenge. Thank you for looking to Allstate.
